

Is your child experiencing difficulty with Instrumental Music?

Fees can not be refunded and must be paid in full even if a student withdraws from the program. We have a strong focus on building perseverance and resilience through music making. This is a fantastic opportunity for your child to learn to ask for help and find solutions before quitting.

To begin this process you can either email us the specific reasons your child is experiencing difficulties or let us know and we will call you to chat about it.

Some things to think about before a conversation with the teachers:

We can work through these issues with you so that your student can continue and be successful in the program, developing their resilience and persistence along the way!
